

MRS. LUEDERS GETS DIVORCE

Menasha Couple Lawfully Separated in the Oshkosh Courts Saturday Morning.

Anna Sophia Lueders vs. Charles, Lueders, both well known residents of this city were arraigned in court at Oshkosh Saturday in a divorce case which resulted as follows:

Ordered judgement of divorce granted to plaintiff and the defendant is ordered to pay the plaintiff $400, as and for a final division of the property, and also to give her the household furniture as provided for in the judgement.

Mrs. Lueders claims to have been greatly abused at the hands of her husband, and that at one time several weeks ago, she was driven from the house and not allowed to return. The parties concerned are well advanced in years and have been married for nearly thirty years. Mr. Lueders is employed as engineer at the Wisconsin pumping station at Neenah. They reside on West Broad street.

Clipped By:

arkramer1969

Tue, Feb 28, 2023