Illinois Man
Will Preach at Convocation

Another in the monthly series of religious convocations held at Lawrence college during the school year will take place at 11 o'clock Thursday morning in Memorial chapel. The Rev. Edward Manthel, pastor of the Congregational church in Western Springs, Ill., is the guest preacher.

Rev. Manthel is president of the board of the Congregational State conference of Illinois, and is vice president of the board of the Chicago Theological seminary. He is an alumnus of the University of Wisconsin and Chicago Theological seminary. The sermon is titled "A Religious Workman."

Music for the service will be provided by organist LaVahn Maesch, director of the Lawrence conservatory.

The undergraduate male chorus, under the direction of George Cox, will sing "Holy, Lord of All", a Welsh chorale arranged by E. S. Williams.

The service is open to the public without admission charge, as are all Lawrence convocations. Seats in the balcony are not assigned to students.
