Stein-Salzman

Miss Alice Diane Salzman, Appleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Salzman, Milladore, became the bride of Frank Stein, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stein, Appleton, at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, Aug. 5, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Appleton.

The double-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Emil Schmidt, pastor of the church.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown featuring long pointed sleeves, a lace bodice extending into a full-length train, and a satin skirt. Her finger-tip veil fell from a satin headdress trimmed with pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of red roses, white carnations, and white streamers.

Mrs. Lillian Schill, Auburn-dale, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Her gown was light green net over taffeta with lace flounces set with rhinestones, and her lace bodice was designed with cap sleeves and a high neckline. Completing her costume was a picture hat and net gauntlets, and she carried a bouquet of white and green carnations.

The bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Stein, Appleton, sister of the groom, and Miss Frances Liesch, were gowned in dresses of orchid and maize, respectively, styled identical to the matron of honor's dress. They each wore picture hats and gauntlets, and carried bouquets of carnations.

The groom's brother, John Stein, Appleton, was the best man. Bob Salzman, Milladore, brother of the bride, and Carl Van Brody, were the groomsmen.
