

Leonard M. Kummerow

Leonard M. Kummerow, 80, of 212 Chestnut St., Marathon, died Wednesday, April 29, 1998, at the North Central Health Care Center, Wausau.

He was born March 3, 1918, in the town of Stettin, to Herman and Amanda (Wilde) Kummerow. He married Helen Hornung on Aug. 8, 1940, at St. Mary Catholic Church, Marathon.

Leonard was a custodian for Marathon High School, retiring in 1983 during which time he grew ginseng. Leonard was a member of the Carpenters Local Union No. 460,

Leonard Kummerow

Marathon City Fire Department, for 20 years and served on the Marathon Village Board.

Survivors include his wife, Helen Kummerow, Marathon; two daughters, Patricia (Ralph) Furger and Janice (LeRoy) Lang, both of Marathon; two sons, Dennis Kummerow, Wausau, and James Kummerow, Merrill; 12 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; and one sister, Ruth (Walter) Klapel, Wausau. He was preceded in death by his parents; and two sisters, Sylvia Woller and Loretta Behnke.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m., Saturday, May 2, 1998, at St. Mary Catholic Church, Marathon. The Rev. Joseph Diermeier O.F.M. Cap. will officiate. Burial will be at St. Mary's Cemetery, Marathon. Visitation will be from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. today at the Kraemer Funeral Home, Marathon, and again from 9 a.m. Saturday until the time of services at the church.

Clipped By:

arkramer1969

Tue, Jan 9, 2024