

VALENTINE FOSE

Valentine Fose, 61, died at 8:05 o'clock this morning at the residence, 726 Washington street, following a three weeks' illness with pneumonia.

For the past forty years he resided in this city. He was born in Watertown and lived there during his childhood. From there he moved to White-water and later came to this city. He was married to Miss Christina Williams, in this city, September 16, 1879.

Those surviving, besides a wife, are two sons, Michael, J. Chicago; and Raymond J., a warrant officer on the U. S. S. Prairie, a daughter, Mrs. Charles Brian, Appleton; one brother, Nicholas, Aberdeen, S. D.; two sisters, Mrs. Rean Stoiber, South Milwaukee; and Mrs. Barbara Cramer, Milwaukee; a half-sister, Mrs. Anna Cook, White-water and a grandson, Sergeant Iveaux F. Miller, now with the Rainbow Division which has just reached France.

The funeral arrangements are being held up pending the receipt of word from the son, Raymond, whose ship, Prairie, is now located in the harbor at Philadelphia.

Clipped By:

arkramer1969

Tue, Feb 28, 2023